

Noah

Devendra Banhart

Not everyone can relate to what you and I appreciate
Not everyone can relate to what you and I appreciate
 To what you and I appreciate
 Noah is a cowboy but nobody knows
 His cattle's on that hillside, still nobody knows
Not everyone can relate to what you and I appreciate

Not everyone can relate to what you and I appreciate
 To what you and I appreciate
 But I know you'd like to run away
 But it's hard with horseshoes made of clay
 And the selfish friend, that I am, says
 "Stay, my friend, my friend, my friend, my friend"
