

I Want You Now

Big Sugar

Half-awake in the morning
I want you now
This feeling greets me without warning
I want you now
Sunlight dancing on my curtain
I want you now
My state of mind remains uncertain
But I want you nowLying in this bed for hours
And I ain't sick don't send me flowers
You can heal me with your powers
And I want you nowSome they steal something fractured
But I want you now
I'll bear the burden of my actions
Cause I want you now
Don't loose the feel of understanding
I've been a fool in all my glory
That's why I called to say I'm sorry
And I want you nowOhh say guitar, say it one time for me
**Guitar Solo**
Mmhmm
