

San Francisco To L.A.

The Jude$

Everybody needs a song
To keep them dancing all night long
So they slip or they slide and they go for a ride
And they leave on the line yeahEverybody knows the way
From San Francisco to L.A.
So they hitch or they drive or they go for a ride
And they reach for the nightEveryone is having fun and everythings alright
Everyone is having fun and everythings alrightSo they slip and they slide and they go for a ride
And they leave on the line
