

Look What Love Has Done

Jaci Velasquez

Where once the moon was just a rock spinning in the sky
Where once the stars were only tiny points of light
Now the moon looks like it's heaven's shining pearl
Now those stars, they look like windows into another world
Look what love has done to me, look what love has done
There's poetry in all I see, look what love has done
And my heart is dancing through each day, my soul is running free
Look what love has done to me, oh
Where once each breath was just a sigh of aching emptiness
Where once I hardly felt the beating in my chest
Now each breath feels like a precious kiss of life
Now inside me beat the wings of a thousand butterflies
Look what love has done to me, look what love has done
This must be how it's meant to be, look what love has done
And my heart is dancing through each day, my soul is running free
Look what love has done to me
And I can't tell was that a violin or did you say something
Was that lightning striking where I stand
Or did you just reach out and take my hand
Look what love has done to me, look what love has done
There's poetry in all I see, look what love has done
And my heart is dancing through each day, my soul is running free
Look what love has done to, oh done to me
Look what love has done to me
Dancing through each day, oh dancing
