See, you do the damn thang if you still gon' sleep witcha baby mama

'Cuz you know it's gon' be drama but you take care of yo' kids

You done the damn thang, when you go back to the hood

And all that kinda foolishness whatever, you do the damn thang

Knahmsayin'? See how I'm sayin'

If you a ugly dude and you got a whole lotta money

And the chicks jock you, then you do the damn thang

And you know you ugly and you got some bad chicks

You do the damn thang, you feel that?

If you a ugly chick or you was fine once

You know where you was fine and then ate it

And you might bust right now and you big ya dig?

In the two thousand, if they still jock you, then you do the damn thang
