English Breakfast

Sean Eskimo

We interrupt this program to bring you a special bulletin from our inter-planetary newsgroup
Sound
Do you have a clue what to do?
Pay pay attention to the man with the blessing
Sound
Do you have a clue what to do?
Pay attention to the man with the blessing
Sound
Do you have a clue what to do?
Pay pay attention to the man with the blessing
Sound
Do you have a clue what to do?
My main advantage point
Is I use live ammunition
I survive the restrictions
That make my mic goes into diction
Friction leads to fire
Crews to get burned
How much ink I just injected is none of your concern
Unless you're on terms of understanding with the meager
Eager to be mean so you can inherit the heater
I can tell your not graced in the study of conflict
The graceful words have come to pick my burst of a convict
A sceen at the schools about teaching class
I stand the ground, colours of glass
Sunday mass, so I ask
Who plays the lead role of darkness in my past?
What message do you have for the world?
Taste my torture

Smooth words of the warlock
A filthily minded mongrel
Make sure the doors locked
I adore addiction
Punched in depression
Flesh and skin cover my skull
Shine with aggression

Emerald eyes and golden strains
A painful voice
Pale skin and acid rain
Showers, powerful stream of tears that trickle
I walk softly with a hammer and a sickle
A sick individual
High voltage assault
Hit with a battering ram
Throwing heat with a catapult
Added jolt of electricity
Extreme wattage
A psycho in the forest with an axe that ransacks your cottage
Up in this bitch
The weird and the wonderful
The circus tents been pitched
I wake up in the night
In a cold sweat and scream
Swollen members
English breakfast with vadeime
Lets take a trip inside of my thoughts
Updating records, educating all
Lets take a trip inside of my thoughts
Updating records, educating all
Lets take a trip inside of my thoughts
Updating records, educating all
Lets take a trip inside of my thoughts
I'm sorry but your going to have to repeat that in English.
