New Year's

Antighost

You were so young
I was younger than you
I felt broken
You were tiny bits of glue
I was made of
Clay and bits of paper
You were holy
I donâ€™t deserve to be with you

Seven matches
Just to light one candle
I canâ€™t light it
You keep blowing on the wick
Next year, New Yearâ€™s
I donâ€™t know what will happen
Itâ€™s a long time
For you to still be lying

I donâ€™t know how to feel if you canâ€™t tell me this is real

Next year, New Yearâ€™s
I canâ€™t see the future
Youâ€™re clairvoyant
You are breaking our only vows
Will you hold me
Just one last time tonight?
We can pretend
Itâ€™s last year
And weâ€™re still alright

Will you hold me
Just one last time tonight?
We can pretend
Itâ€™s last year
And weâ€™re still alright
