

Oh, What a Perfect Day

George Strait

I woke up this mornin', peaked out my door
It was rainin', cold and grey
It's my one day off, I was gonna play golf
There goes the plans that I made
Oh, but you won't hear me complain And oh, what a perfect day for lovin' you
When you're in my arms, I've got sunshine
And the sky's always blue
Couldn't ask for better weather to do what I do
Oh, what a perfect day for lovin' you So let's grab a blanket, a hot cup of coffee
And sit out on the front porch and swing
That look in your eyes is what's on my mind
We don't have to say anything
Let's just listen to that old tin roof sing And oh, what a perfect day for lovin' you
When you're in my arms, I've got sunshine
And the sky's always blue
Couldn't ask for better weather to do what I do
Oh, what a perfect day for lovin' you
