

Windows

Graham Czach

Windows of love
Rely on power of sunshine. With these eyes you see
The world in broken hearts and lies unwind. All the years I'm looking for The truth of love that no one saw. Windows, windows
Windows of love. Panes of glass keep you from me
As I look inside for what I need. Free your mind and turn the key
Unlock the future to let it be. Windows, windows
Windows of love.
