

"Another Girl"

Wild Belle

I lose sleep
I lose sleep
Too much I've seen And I weep,
yes, I weep,
Cut your lips upon her body Didn't I didn't I
didn't I didn't I treat you right? If I was so gone, why didn't you say?
You keep me waiting by
On the floor, you know I'd crawl, Just to change your mind. If I lock the door just to stall you for a moment, I won't get you,
even if I tried Didn't I didn't I
didn't I didn't I treat you right I'm just another girl another one
I'm just another girl
another one
I'm just another girl,
just another one
I'm just another girl,
looking for love. I'm just another one of your experimentation, You can turn me out,
but I'm just another girl. I'm just another girl
another one
I'm just another girl
another one
I'm just another girl,
just another one
I'm just another girl,
looking for love. I lose sleep
I lose sleep
Too much I've seen And I weep,
yes, I weep,
Cut your lips upon her body, Didn't I didn't I

didn't I
didn't I treat you right I'm just another girl
another one
I'm just another girl
another one
I'm just another girl,
just another one
I'm just another girl,
looking for love. I'm just another girl,
looking for love
I'm just another girl,
looking for love
I'm just another girl,
just another one
