

Superlady

Nev Nicholls

When I'm alone with you
You know just what I wanna do, girl
 To hold you in my arms
Lovin' you all over, baby, yeah yeah
 No pressure from me, baby
 No need to get excited
Because tonight was made for two lovers
 And you were invited
You're more than any ordinary woman
You keep me runnin' back to your love
 You're a superlady
You're more than any ordinary woman
You keep me runnin' back to your love
 You're a superlady
Heaven must've sent you, girl, to be with me for always
 Sharin' all our fantasies, ooh

Tell me that you'll always be around
Show me you care, I'll always be there
To me you're more than any ordinary woman
 You keep me runnin' back to your love
 You're a superlady
Ooh, you know you're more than any ordinary woman
 You keep me runnin' back to your love
 You're a superlady
Hey, you know you are a super, superlady
 You are my super, super, superlady
 Ordinary, keep me runnin', superlady
 Ordinary, keep me runnin', superlady
 Ordinary, keep me runnin', superlady
