You Gotta Stop

Elvis Presley

Baby, you've been lying to me
Now I'm onto you
It's the same old song
But it doesn't ring true
That's right, you're wrong again
Time to change and put you on your own again
You've had your way too long
Time for me to be moving on
You gotta stop, you're wrong again, stop that song again
You've been steppin' ou, wild and fancy free
Now you've had your fun and you're running back to me
It just can't be if there's no harmony, then stop
That's all, let's break it up
You've had me fooled, now I'm wakin' up
I see right through your lies
You made me open my eyes
You gotta stop, you're wrong again, stop that song again
It's too late now I've made up my mind
Being here with you is just a waste of time
Nothing to say so I'll be on my way, stop
You gotta stop, you're wrong again, stop that song again
It's too late now I've made up my mind
Being here with you is just a waste of time
It just can't be if there's no harmony, then stop
Stop, you're wrong again
Stop that song again, stop you're wrong again
You gotta stop that song again, stop
