Tonight You're Perfect

New Politics

Should I believe in the world momma
Should I give up and hide or should I stay and fight
Should I believe in the rules momma
Tell me if I should run or learn to shoot a gun
I don't know what to believe momma
Yeah I'm down on my knees I'm begging please
It's getting harder to see momma
Give me something to believe believe believe in

Tonight you're perfect
I wanna fall in love with stars in your eyes
Tonight you're perfect
I wanna fall in love but only for the night
Only for the night
I feel perfect too!

You won't believe what I've seen momma
There's a fire inside there's a storm on the rise
It's in the air that we breathe momma
Can I speak out my mind in these changing times?
Give me a reason to be momma
Cause I'm down on my knees I'm begging please
Help me back on my feet momma
Cause I need someone to believe believe believe in

Tonight you're perfect
I wanna fall in love with stars in your eyes
Tonight you're perfect
I wanna fall in love but only for the night
Only for the night
I feel perfect too!
