Three Days

Bec Stevens

three nights awake
i only just made us a home to stay your clothes folded neatly next to mine with pictures of things weâ€™ve done and love plastered side by side three days just the fucking same while your off distracted by twelve hour days and Iâ€™m still here stealing the parts of you thats in all your friends and repeating every goddamn line that youâ€™ve ever said around in my head and i miss your voice, and i miss your hair touch undoing my dress i only just buttoned up laying me down wherever we call home cause weâ€™ve shared the most love on a floor that Iâ€™ve ever known now i canâ€™t sleep and i canâ€™t breath and every move that i make now scares the fucking shit outta me cause theres no point when you canâ€™t see that under this weathered skin that Iâ€™m standing in that Iâ€™m still the same girl i used to be when you meet me

and i know you said its all gunna be ok but Iâ€™m sorry baby, i just canâ€™t face the world today
