Break Myself Away

Norther

You treat me like I shouldn't say what's on my mind
Like I had no soul at all
You and your ideas of life and ways to live
Lead you to certain way to fallI stand burning in the shadows
I stand waiting for my own chance
I will break myself awayNow it's the time to scream aloud and speak my mind
So it's my turn to give you hell
Kneel and heed my words of wisdom and of pain
They will sanctify my lifeI stand burning in the shadows
I stand waiting for my own chance
I will break myself awayI stand burning in the shadows
I stand waiting for my own chance
I know it all I know by far
I will break myself awayI stand burning in the shadows
I stand waiting for my own chance
I know it all I know by far
I will break myself awayI stand burning in the shadows
I stand waiting for my own chance
I know it all I know by far
I will break myself away
