

Time Is Marching

John Lee Hooker

Oh, babe
Well, time is watchin' over me
Oh, baby, honey child
Well, time is marching on
You tell me, babe
Well, what you is gonna do Well, two more days, baby
Well, you know how maybe go home
Oh, few more days, pretty child
Child, I maybe gone
You tell me, babe
Well, what you is gonna do
Oh, lady Oh, why should you stall me around, baby?
Well, tell me right today
Well, why should you stall me around, baby?
Well, tell me right today
You know, baby
Well, time is marching on
