Tricky Nicky

Mike Pinto

this song goes out to everybody who's found a girl who's naughty, and became more than friends

- no - 'this song goes out to everybody'
- that's how it should go right

this song goes out to everybody who's
found a girl who's naughty, and became more than friends, found out that she was way too crazy to share a house and baby. this song is not pretend tricky nicky always ran around town she's the kinda girl turns a frown upside down.

Four fucking miutes in the sack and you'll return with a dozen roses and some weed to burn. shit, you think i'm babbling but nicky's always dabbling with coke she'll smoke your grass, toss that ass like a javelin before you get thrown - here's advice of my own you better take out a motherfucking loan. and it goes. . .

tricky nicky's gonna spread her disease don't bother to play the father she can't have no babies. she'll take your money and she'll take your benz for a tab of ecstasy she'd do you and a friend what a shame, what a shame tricky nicky's not the same as she was before she got stuck in the cocaine game the coke she steals still makes her feel good for an hour or two till she woke up with her throat cut in a hospital room.

whoa! you've gotta forgive me i have spoke too much see as my pen hits the paper my lips hit the dutch well, you know how that goes so let's continue to flow about poor tricky nicky's scenario.

it was an emergency as she went under the knife as doctors urgently tried to save nicky's life there was a burglary but she was too high to fight 'cause she was staying with the dealer that she met last night whoa.

she's the typeaa bitch turns a frown upside down four fucking minutes in the sack and you'll return with a dozen roses and some weed to burn shit, you think i'm lying but nicky didn't die and the scar on her neck will only reflect the pain she keeps inside. so pass the story right on through that is all that you can do.
'cause tricky nicky's coming to a town near you.
