

Put the Knife Away

Goldfinger

You say nothing matters to me
You say we got broken history
Hold the knife, away from me
You say I don't get how you think
You say you're closer to the brink
Hold the knife, away from me
Not closer to my neck Always right, you're never wrong
Telling me I don't belong
Just put the knife away and try to listen, to listen
You say you changed, you stayed the same
Always driving me insane
Just put the knife away and try to listen, to listen
Never say sorry to me
Walking on egg shells, can't breathe
Give my life back to me
You live in darkness, no light
You scream at me and we fight
Hold my life and oversee
I'm gonna lose my mind Always right, you're never wrong
Telling me I don't belong
Just put the knife away and try to listen, to listen
You say you changed, you stayed the same
Always driving me insane
Just put the knife away and try to listen, to listen
Those words you can't take back
Always under attack
Hold on to alibis
Hide behind your disguise
Say you're wrong, I will die
Never give up the fight
This life you've painted red
Say I'm better off dead Oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh Always right, you're never wrong
Telling me I don't belong
Just put the knife away and try to listen, to listen
You say you changed, you stayed the same
Always driving me insane
Just put the knife away and try to listen, to listen
