

I'm Not the Only One

VA Naughty Boy, Sam Smith

She's got her life going she is still breathing

It's not a proven fact it's just a feeling

Her old man doesn't own her like he did before

He once was so clear but now he's a blurI'm not the only one who's not afraid of youThe avenue's the same but the people are changing

she said she would be there they understand me

Her old man doesn't own her like he did before

He once was so clear but now he's a blurI'm not the only one who's not afraid of youThe homeless child is no roll she played

It is real as anything the system has made

She's a monument forever standing

Inner city exposer can be extremely demanding

The pattern is circular as we pass the wine

She could no longer live with the lying

Her family tried to control her feelings

It just gave her new life a deeper meaning

Either you shut up or you shut downI'm not the only one

You motherfuckerI'm not the only one who's not afraid of you
