

Hardly

Shai Hulud

I am a memory, I never existed and now I am nothing
Her name, a single word melts me, takes me to the ground Only alive, can't she see I'm destroyed by yesterdays And do I gain? I could only dream for chance to side with me
Inquire, ingest, implode
Let this not be the dissemblance of me
Another night with arms still empty, I'm destroyed And do I gain Or just fall?
