

Mr. Malcontent

Burning Image

Why do you hate your life so much?

Mr. Malcontent

You can hate your life

But, don't hate mine

I don't like you

I will never come to your defense

I am not your friend

And that's just fine

You think you're someone

No one ever really cared about you

You just want someone

To think of you and make it all about you

(to make it all about you) Nothing makes you happy, does it?

Mr. Malcontent

Do us all a favor and end your life

No one wants to follow you

Into your descent

We'll just look at you and wave goodbye

Everywhere you go, they call you Mr. Malcontent

No one wants you here, go somewhere else

No one gives a damn about you, Mr. Malcontent

Mr. Malcontent, go fuck yourself
