Be My God

Lullacry

Pretend to control me
To pull my strings
To be my God
To be my GodPretend to love and hate
To take care of me
To be my faith
Be mineI always wanted You to be my God
I trusted You, but now You're gonePretend to control me
To pull my strings
To be my faith
Be mineI always wanted You to be my God
I trusted You, but now You're goneI always needed You to be inside me
I guess You'll never, never be my GodI always wanted You to be my God
I trusted You, but now You're goneI always needed You to be inside me
I guess You'll never, never be my God
Never be my GodI always wanted You to be my God
I trusted You, but now You're goneI always needed You to be inside me
I guess You'll never, never be my God
