

The Missing Frame

Afi

One at a time, conscious becomes surreal
One at a time, heart attacks are concealed

I can see that I

Lose the choice of life

One at a time, suicides are revealed
You will see that I lost another life

But tonight

I'll let you tear it up

If you don't wake me up

But if you tear it, we can repair it

So please don't wake me

Til someone cares

Now no one cares

One at a time, I watch them all forget

One at a time, I'm lost in little deaths

It's the place that I, I forget my life

But tonight

I'll let you tear it up

If you don't wake me up

But if you tear it, we can repair it

So please don't wake me

Til someone cares

Now no one cares

Will the flood behind me

Put out the fire inside me?

Will the flood behind me

Put out the fire inside me?

I'll let you tear it up

I'll let you break it up

If you don't wake me up

But if you tear it, we can repair it

So please don't wake me

Til someone cares

Now no one cares

Cares

Oh, I'll let you tear it up

If you dont wake me up

'Cause it's apparent, that you dont care and

It sunk into me

'Cause I don't care
Now no one cares
