Homeless

Ed Sheeran

Could I wake up next to you when we're sitting double figures?

Look into your eyes like I'm looking into double mirrors

Could you make it any clearer? Everything's such a blur

It's not my turn, it's hers to get hurtOn a late night coming home from way too many train rides

Lace not as red as my face, I'm home at the same time

Highbury estate's fine

Smoking like a dragon but don't chase linesI haven't slept for the past week

Two hours ain't enough for me

I feel inspired at quarter to three amI haven't changed since our last meet
I'm still getting all my meals for free

Think I'm being shunned by my feet againIt's not a homeless life for me It's just I'm home less than I'd like to be (x3)

It's not a homeless life for meAnd now I'm sitting on a night bus flicking through my Ipod
Feeling kinda tired so I try to close my eyes up

Driver, turn the lights off, lights on, on stage, mics on

Song plays, nice one, gotta keep my hype strongTruth be, never went to Uni

People see right through me but I'm not a fool, see I'm never gonna do one, gonna live past 22, done

Everything I need to except get a 2:1I haven't slept for the past week

Two hours ain't enough for me

I feel inspired at quarter to three amI haven't changed since our last meet
I'm still getting all my meals for free

Think I'm being shunned by my feet againIt's not a homeless life for me It's just I'm home less than I'd like to be (x3)

It's not a homeless life for meWhen I feel cold you keep me warm And I'm not looking for some loose change

Just wanna find a true mate

Who wants to be my duvetIt's not a homeless life for me It's just I'm home, less than I'd like to be (x7) It's not a homeless life for me, oh yeah
