

I Would Be Stronger Than That

Faith Hill

There's a friend who will call when her husband's asleep
Crossing the phone lines for comfort
And she cries that she needs him and someday he'll change
But now's not a good time to go
And it isn't my place to say, leave him and run
But no love is worth all the damage he's done
But if she'll hold her ground then I'll hold my tongue
Ever the diplomat, oh, I'd like to think
That I would be stronger than that
Where's her head
Where's her nerve
Does part of her think
This is all she deserves
Oh, I would be stronger
I would not stay one minute longer
I would be stronger than that
It started out good, they usually do
Then one day it's taken for granted
'Til words become weapons and love turns to pain
Oh, why is she still holding on
She says living without him is too hard to face
And I try to imagine myself in her place
But with well chosen words and well placed tears
She forgives him in two seconds flat, oh, I'd like to think

That I would be stronger than that
Where's her head
Where's her nerve
Does part of her think
This is all she deserves
Oh, I would be stronger
I would not stay one minute longer
I would be stronger than that
Well, I know what she's thinking and I know what she'd say
That my life and her life are like night and like day
And her love is the love that will save him
Brave words but I don't believe them
Where's her head
Oh, where's her nerve

Does part of her think
This is all she deserves
Oh, I would be stronger
I would not stay one minute longer
I would be stronger than that
Oh, I would be stronger
I would not wait one minute longer
I would be stronger than that
