Too Tough to Make Some Friends

Backyard Babies

Too tough to make some friends
Too tough to make some friends
Too tough to make some friends
Too tough to make someFriends always call you
And lie on the phone
Like they think that you're tolerant tooBut if they could see
What is goin' to be
And that you're actually left all aloneWell, I'm trying to prove
What I do's not for you
It's for meToo tough to make some friends
Too tough to make some friends, heyWell, everything changes
It's a part of the plan
Planning them out of my lifeAnd all I can do
When I'm thinkin' 'bout you
I just switched to channel twoWell, I'm trying to prove
What I do's not for you
It's for meToo tough to make some friends
Too tough to make some friends, hey
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeahI'm trying to prove
What I do's not for you
It's for meToo tough to make some friends
Too tough to make some
Too tough to make some friends
Too tough to make some friends
Too tough to make some friends
Hey, hey
