Phoenix

Laura Doggett

When danger calls
A soul sets fire
Ignite my fears
Ignite desire

Baby youâ€™re the fuel
Your iridescent colours change from every view

Iâ€™m your gold
But when it gets darker
I wonâ€™t glow no more
I cease to sparkle

So baby be my jewels
Your iridescent colours ignite the room

And I burn
I burn
Til you can see my ghost
From the ashes grow
Dark sun lights a silhouette
Cradling the flame til the fire beds
Phoenix gonna rise from the ash again
Phoenix gonna rise from the ash

Anger unfolds
towering inferno
Resting on the bones
of bitterness of sorrow

Iâ€™m so confused
You set the torch
And I freeze

Make me shiver shark
While I walk on walk on water
Hunt me in the dark
Make me feel the thunder

You shake my core

Hit me so hard til I canâ€™t take no more

I burn
