I'm In Love

Audio Bullys

Everywhere I go,
Everything looks strange
These people talk to me
But I don't know there names

I've got to get back home, yeah
I've got to get back home, yeah
I've got to get back home, 'cause I'm in love

Everything I said I said for you
(You still know)
And everything I do you do it too
Everything I said I said for you
(You still know)
And everything I do you do it too

Love keep on working
Love keep on working
Love keep on working your magic

Everywhere I go,
Everything looks strange
These people talk to me
But I don't know there names

I've got to get back home, yeah
I've got to get back home, yeah
I've got to get back home, 'cause I'm in love

Love, I'm in love

I've been going on for weeks but it feels like years
Love the way you talk,
Love the way you stare,
Love your blue eyes and your dark soft hair,
And you can't compare do those others
Make me leave my brothers in the bars and the clubs(you still know, you still know)

I'm staying in now(and you still know), listening to those old school dubs
Now I'm preaching, real love(cuz I'm in love)

Love the things you do, the days we spend, when we break up and then we mend

Lalalalalalala, you still know
Lalalalalalala, lalalalalalala
Lalalalalalala, you still know
I still know
Love, I'm in love

Gotta get back home, cos I'm in love
Love, I'm in love
Gotta get back home, cos I'm in love
