

Still Falls the Rain

Roxy Music

Dear Hyde, no more can I explain
I've tried with words in vain
They pass you by like falling rain
From perfect skies still falls the rain insideHey brother don't be square
Here it is not over there
I'm your man, got it made
You need my fire, need my shadeYou're here Hyde, once more inspire
This strangely tied uncertain frame
So torn inside, still falls the rain
Two minds, one vein, still falls the rain insideHey doctor don't be scared
It's you and me so where's my share?
I'm the man move aside
Call me mister just call me HydeHey lover don't be shy
I'm a single minded guy
Better watch me boy I'm rough
Half a man ain't strong enoughHey brother don't be square
Here it is not over there
I'm your man, got it made
You feed my fire, need my shade
