Nirvana Blue

Hooverphonic

I just jumped out in the open
Without knowing if my parachute would save me
It's quiet and peaceful
In this emotional nirvana blue
'Cause taking off was so easy
But landing very rough
No tears, no smile
Not even the urge to cry
I just jumped out in the open
Without knowing if my parachute would save me
It's quiet and peaceful
In this emotional nirvana blue
'Cause taking off was so easy
But landing very rough
No tears, no smile
Not even the urge to cry
Your portrait is fading
Raw canvas remaining
As a white page in my soul
'Cause taking off was so easy
But landing very rough
No tears, no smile
Not even the urge to cry
Your portrait is fading
Raw canvas remaining
As a white page in my soul
I just jumped out in the open
Without knowing if my parachute would save me
It's quiet and peaceful
'Cause taking off was so easy
But landing very rough
No tears, no smile
Not even the urge to cry
I just jumped out in the open
I just jumped out in the open
I just jumped out in the open
I just jumped out in the open
I just jumped out in the open

I just jumped out in the open
I just jumped out in the open
I just jumped out in the open
