

Take Back

Green Day

You pushed me once too far again
I'd like to break your fuckin' teeth and
Stick a knife in the center of your back You better grow some eyes in the back of your head
I fight dirty, just like your looks
Can't take, can't take, can't take anymore Take back
Take back
Take The taste of bad blood on the tip of my tongue
An eye for an eye, an eye for my boy
Gun for a gun
I'm takin' back what's mine Expect it when you're least expectin' it
No loss of love, the smell of regret
Lights out I can't take it anymore Take back
Take back
Take back
Take back
