

So He Begins to Lie

Bloc Party

The cameras watching
He takes a breath
Even though that they know
That he knows
That theyre on to him
He dont break a sweat, noOh, it grows and grows and grows
Inside of him
Theres nothing there
Theres nothing there
All along he knows
Those mirrors started to lie to him
His reflection fadedThe crowd are waiting
He takes the stage
Cross his heart, hand on heart, open heart
That hes gone legit
He was never there, noOh, it grows and grows and grows
Inside of him
Theres nothing there
Theres nothing there
All along he knows
Those mirrors started to lie to him
His reflection fadedAs easy as closing his eyes
So he begins to lieThe cameras watching
The cameras watching him lie
