

Don't Deserve You

Amanda Perez

Tell me, have you loved someone
So much that it makes you wanna cry?
Tell me, have you ever loved someone
That no matter what they did
You needed them by your side? Oh, I'm losing my mind
Steady thinkin' 'bout you all the time
Oh, I'm telling you this is it
I can't live with out your kiss Ohh baby, I know that I
Can't live without you in my life
But baby, why cant I just do all the things that's right
Ohh baby, I know that I
Can't live without you in my life
But I can see it when I look at you, I can see it now
That I don't deserve you So many nights I sat and fought wit you
Not even realizing that I might lose you
Never admitting that I made mistakes
Not ever knowin' more for the tears fallin' down your face Sometimes love is hard to recognize
Even when you can see it with your own two eyes
Why do I feel this way in my life?
Why can't I just run and hide?
Hide away from the pain that I've given you
Tell me why 'cuz I don't deserve you Ohh baby, I know that I
Can't live without you in my life
But baby, why cant I just do all the things that's right
Oh baby, I know that I
Can't live without you in my life
But I can see it when I look at you, I can see it now
That I don't deserve you I don't deserve to feel your touch
Ohh, I don't deserve to feel your love
I don't deserve to feel your lips, to have your kiss
Oh, really I don't deserve you
I don't deserve you Oh baby, I know that I
Can't live without you in my life
But baby, why cant I just do all the things that's right
Oh baby, I know that I
Can't live without you in my life
But I can see it when I look at you, I can see it now
That I don't deserve you Tell me, have you loved someone
So much that it makes you wanna cry?

Tell me, have you ever loved someone
That no matter what they did
You needed them by your side?
