This Much Fun

Cowboy Mouth

When you first said you didn't think that you could love me any more I closed my eyes and held my breath and turned my face towards the floor
You touched my hand and said that maybe we should separate a while I hoped that through my sorry look you didn't see my great big smileI haven't had this much fun in such a long, long time
This much fun could make me lose my mind
I haven't had this much fun at all
Since you put my back to the wall
This much fun in such a long, long timeI kicked around this sleepy town
Just to find there's nothing here
Avoiding traps of being wrapped
Inside of someone else's fear
Gonna rip my shirt and dye my hair
And if they catch me, I don't careI haven't had this much fun in such a long, long time
This much fun could make me lose my mind
I haven't had this much fun at all
Since you tried to get me to crawl
This much fun in such a long, long timeYou said you wanted me
But started bringing me
Down, down, down
Gotta get away, gonna waste away
Hanging round, around the downtownI haven't had this much fun in such a long, long time
This much fun could make a man go blind
I haven't had this much fun at all
And I swear I'm having a ball
This much fun in such a long, long time
So much fun, it ought to be a crime
