

Jealousy

Spoon

Jealousy you have never done a thing for me
No, you've never done a thing for me jealousy, jealousy
Things go wrong, it sends me somewhere that I don't belong
Yeah, it's just someplace that I don't belong, things go wrong jealousy
I think of him and I get so carried on, I think of him, oh yeah

I think of him and then things get carried on, oh no, no, no, no, no
I think of him and it's jealousy, but it's never done a thing for me
No, it's never done a thing for me jealousy
Jealousy, jealousy, jealousy, jealousy
