Don't Look Back

Svalbard

So here we are, this is it
Here's to all our perseverance and our choices made I know that things won't be the same but don't throw this away

The road is gritty but we're still on it
My heart is aching but I've still got it

And if I'm never letting go then I will never be alone

I could have so much regret but this night isn't over yet
Our lives aren't over
Don't let go
