A World All Soaked In Blood

Carnal Forge

Casualties, the world turns evil when you lose
Blind, my eyes are filled with blood
Execute, this world of myths we've built
Strangled it, hacked it to pieces, fucking piecesDestroyed, eaten alive by my own fears Drained, all my views of life erasedWounds that will never heal
Tortured, i'm chained inside the crypt
Burning the future an ocean of fireA world all soaked in blood
