Shake Her Hand

Eric Roberson

Yeaaaah, oh, listen up, ohh, whoa, oh
You can say she was a big fan of my words
And until she had I know she was a fan of the curs
Guess she and I had whole lot in common
In most circumstances Id be all in
But I knew Shawty and I really kinda dig it yeah
So chilling with this girl dont feel inefficient, yeah
But she wanna know what I got going on later on It wouldnt be wrong if she tagged along
I thought to myself
I got a girl back home
And I cant afford, to just carry
A wise man once told me when youre facing this
Shake her hand and just walk away, hey
I know it sounds crazy but I just got a doll
And she looking at me like dont you think that Im beautiful
Understand Im a man and youre is recognized
But before Ill start out thinking right
Probably best Id say goodnight
I guess she understood, though she didnt seem happy enough
I mean, how often do guys look in her eyes and just tell her no
Everything would have been different once ago
Close with a said Geronimo, you never know
But see
I got a girl back home
And I cant afford, to just carry on, sugar
A wise man once told me when youre tempted with this
Shake her hand and just walk away, hey
Listen, I got a girl back at home
And I cant afford, to just carry on, sugar
A wise man once told me when youre tempted with this
Shake her hand and just walk away, hey
Cause you cant afford to loose
Someone that you care for
Be careful, if you have someone you love
Why would you stay there for?
I got a girl, uh, yeah,
And I cant afford to be out here carrying on A wise man once told me when youre tempted like this

Shake her hand and just walk away
Dont even hug her
Cause I got a girl, yes I do
And she good to me, real good to me
Whoa, wise man once said, hey
Shake her hand and just walk away.

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/