

Shiny Eyed Babies

Bent Knee

I had a shiny eyed baby who fell out of my womb.
I kissed her hello,
I kissed her goodbye,
and that's how we go from cradle to grave. I had a shiny eyed baby who never spoke one word.
He smiled for happy,
she cried for sad,
and that's how we go from
cradle to grave.
If I had an umbrella, I'd shield myself from these God people
telling me that I'm a big bad sinner.
I know I made a mistake,
would it help if I get on my knees
and pray?
Will it give me a
clean slate?
