Out Of Air

Broken Twin

I refuse
I refuse to take the pain
From the moon cold reflections of the sun
I recall
I recall the little light
In your eyes
In your eyesI refuse
I refuse to let it show
For tonight
It's the only thing I know
I recall
I recall the hunger glow
In your eyes
In your eyesRunning up my spine
Hanging in my veins
Stirring up my mind
It's not overBending 'round my waist
Pounding on my chest
Falling through my hair
Till I'm out of air
