

Digital Fantasy

Ayer

I am not above, begging for your hands on me
Same day different love relying on pure pedigree

But I go to bed alone when I'm sleeping with my enemiesI need something to feel, something that's real
But a signal beeps it's haunting me and it keeps bringing me back toMy Digital Fantasy

My Digital FantasyLoaded but I am shooting blanks consistently See red lights going dim when sharks bite at my backstory

But I know the flesh always wins so I tear myself from realityI need something to feel, something that's real
But a wave is crashing over me and it keeps pulling me under

I need something to feel, something that's real
But a signal beeps it's haunting me and
it keeps bringing me back toMy Digital Fantasy

My Digital FantasyI need something to feel, something that's real
But a signal beeps it's haunting me and
it keeps bringing me back toMy Digital Fantasy
My Digital Fantasy
