One More Chance

Steele

You know, you know it's true
Everything I told you
So stop your crying
nowGet up, get up come on
We don't have all night long Perfect I will make youI know that I hurt you
I'm sorry
I told you
Some things that I
regretDon't worry
About me
I know we'll
Be happy
Let's forgive and
forgetWaoh!
It's this kinda feeling.
Waoh!
That makes me
smile.
Woah!
I can't belive this.
Woah!
Let's just stay here a while!Oooooh!
I can't look anywhere
Without seeing
Your face in my mind
I'm still dreaming
For one more chance
One more chanceOooooh!
You
know that I can't live
My life without
You beside me
All I need is
One

more chance to make things right againI try, I try so much Just let me
feel your touch
Shivers run down my spineCan you, can you give me
This
opportunity
Please still say that you're mineJust trust me Believe
me
My word full
Of meaning
I've loved you from the startStare back in
To my eyes
The dreamer
In my guise
Is following his heartWaoh!
It's
this kinda feeling.
Waoh!
That makes me smile.
Woah!
I can't belive
this.
Woah!
Let's just stay here a while!Oooooh!
I can't look anywhere
Without seeing
Your face in my mind
I'm still dreaming
For one more chance
One more chanceOooooh!
You know that I can't live
My life without
You beside me
All I need is
One more chance to make things right
againI look everywhere and your face is all I see!
And I'm not lying, you mean everything to me!You mean everything to me!
You mean everything to me!Oooooh!

I can't look anywhere
Without seeing
Your face in my
mind
I'm still dreaming
For one more chance
One more chanceOooooh!
You
know that I can't live
My life without
You beside me
All I need is
One
more chance to make things right again.
