Crazy Beautiful

Chasen

Everybodys been there, everyones the same
Mostly we dont care, isnt that a shame
We bring us down face after face
The inside is beautiful but the outside we want to change
We want to changeYoure oh so beautiful, you dont need anyones approval
Youve got to believe in yourself, you know you are Youre crazy beautifulThere's no need to change, we're different but the same
In the eyes of a [Incomprehensible]
We're beautifully made
This image remainYoure oh so beautiful, you dont need anyones approval
Youve got to believe in yourself, you know you are
Youre crazy beautifulTake a look its all around you
See the world from different views
The way you shine from the inside
I know with out a doubt, its more than what youll be
In the worlds eyesYoure oh so beautiful, you dont need anyones approval
Youve got to believe in yourself, you know you are
Youre oh so beautiful, you dont need anyones approval
Youve got to believe in yourself, you know you are
Youre crazy beautiful
