A Thousand Days

Scott Sharrard

Through my eyes
I have seen the world start spinning like a ball
Stars light up and then fall for you
So then what's a man like me supposed to do?If I gave you the moon would you notice
That I'm right beside you?Well, now a thousand days and thousand nights are not enough
'Cause I can't hold back the way I feel about my love
Won't let it go, won't let it goAnd if the angels came, I'd fight them back to win your soul
And when everything was said and done, they'd go back home
They oughta know, they oughta know
That you're mine, all mineIn my world
You're the sun that shines and lights up the evening skies
Clearing up the horizon, hold on
Come with me and I will never let you downOh, and in this love we'll drown, this I promise you
'Cause they can't hold us downWell, now a thousand days and thousand nights are not enough
'Cause I can't hold back the way I feel about my love
Won't let it go, won't let it goAnd if the angels came, I'd fight them back to win your soul.
And when everything was said and done they'd go back home
They oughta know, they oughta know
That you're mine, all mineI would do anything, just believe it
Your love means everything and I need it
Your heart won't lie, reach out for meWell, now a thousand days and thousand nights are not enough
'Cause I can't hold back the way I feel about my love
Won't let it go, won't let it go
'Cause you're mine, all mineAnd if the angels came, I'd fight them back to win your soul
And when everything was said and done they'd go back home
They oughta know, they oughta know
That you're mine, all mine
