Kiss Your Man Goodbye

The Everly Brothers

You've had your way far too long, girl
And your kiss goes bittersweet
So you'd better change your way, girl
Or I'll walk out in the street
Oh girl, you'd better try to please me
Then kiss your man goodbye, goodbye
You can hang onto me, girl
If you cling with all your might
And when you whisper to me, love
It had better sound just right
Oh girl, you'd better try to please me
Then kiss your man goodbye, goodbye
Every time I see you smile, love
It had better be at me
And don't let me see you cry, girl
That's the way it's gotta be
Oh girl, you'd better try to please me
Then kiss your man goodbye, goodbye
