

Hollow Tune

Brick + Mortar

VS: Not born a fool, But I've found my door.
Heard from the dead, when I was born.
My weakened bones and my blood shot eyes.
A one way street to nowhere.RFN: Neon lights so soft like blankets,
seen you smile in a secret language.
Love i know just like the ocean.CH: A hollow tune, within the fire.
I feel them breathe, so uninspired.
My broken hands my weary bones,
I sit my words beside my throne.
You're not alone. I'm not alone.
Can you hear me thunder?
You're not alone.VS: I'm lost again, but i'm still alive.
Your broken heart I sacrificed.
I'm sorry for all that I've done,
To find my voice;
I'm someone.RFN: Neon lights so soft like blankets,
seen you smile in a secret language.
Love i know just like the ocean.CH: A hollow tune, within the fire.
I feel them breathe, so uninspired.
My broken hands my weary bones,
I sit my words beside my throne.
You're not alone. I'm not alone.
Can you hear me thunder?
You're not alone.BRG: Forever! Forever now we can live! (3x)
Tell me when you're ready we can talk again.
Show me,
are you real or are you just pretend?RFN: Neon lights so soft like blankets,
seen you smile in a secret language.
Love i know just like the ocean.CH: A hollow tune, within the fire.
I feel them breathe, so uninspired.
My broken hands my weary bones,
I sit my words beside my throne.
You're not alone. I'm not alone.
Can you hear me thunder?
You're not alone.[THE END]
