Valentine

The Get Up Kids

It's words you forget to anniversary songs
Bottles bite back your tolerance wrong
Your good intentions count for little anymore
If you're sorry why wage war?I'm not fully convinced
That something wrong with this
Could another point of view biased and untrue
Tear me away from youWill you be my valentine
If I'm a world away
Apologies are breaking me
Constants aren't so constant anymoreTwo days I wait for calls
To come through
Tonight for me translates
Yesterday to youBend and you wave you're barely away
Wish I could say tonight
When you bend and wave goodbye
You'd take me with youWill you be my valentine
If I'm a world away
Apologies are breaking me
The constants aren't so constant anymore
The constants aren't so constant anymoreWill you be my valentine
Will you be my valentine
If I'm a world away, if I'm a world away
The constants aren't so constant anymore
