

King of the Comebacks

Audio Adrenaline

You been beat down cast out kicked in the shins
Never ever, ever did they think You could win
Like an underdog story, or return of a king
It's never really over till the fat lady sings, so c'mon
Time's ticking down we're on the edge of our seat
Only a mighty good leader gonna make us believe
We've heard all about it now we're waiting to see
The end of the story and it isn't defeat
So c'mon, yeah c'mon Oh, Oh, All over the world
We wait for the miracle and it's coming
You know it's a matter of fact
You're the king of the comebacks They thought it unbelievable that You'd ever win
But I know they know You're gonna do it again
Stand up, eyes fixed, don't wanna miss this
Jack up the cardiac, go ahead and call it a comeback
