

Trail of Broken Hearts

k.d. lang

Trail of broken hearts looking back at you
Now and from the start these words will travel true
The Godspeed of trust will settle
The dust we've been passing through Broken trail so long, a long and tired past
And emptiness has gone, I've found this place at last
And here will remain with only the aim of staying sure and fast
Leaving just a part down the trail of broken hearts Trail of broken hearts looking back at you
Now and from the start these words will travel true
The Godspeed of trust will settle the dust we've been passing through Leaving just a part down the trail of broken hearts Trail of broken hearts
