

E Talking (Radio Edit)

Soulwax

Names that sound familiar
Secret wounds from failure
Try and look into their eyes
A part of the weekend never dies
There's no tension in your dance
As you try and hold my hand It's not you, it's the e-talking
Closin' in on the translation
It's not you, it's the e-talking
I'm not sure which part I'm playin' Look and I come in between Faces you have never seen
Silence re-alarms go wild
Rock stop paint me melt to lie
As you weep things work the same
But I can't recall your name It's not you, it's the e-talking
Closin' in on the translation
It's not you, it's the e-talking
I'm not sure which part I'm playin' Stranger at your own party feels like home
Late night phone calls, try to please all It's not you, it's the e-talking
Closin' in on the translation
It's not you, it's the e-talking
I'm not sure which part I'm playin'
